

Commissioning Photography

If our library does not stock the specific images you need, or you want a set of tailor-made photos for your organisation to use exclusively, look no further than our commissions service.

You can come to us with either a concept or a brief which we can then develop for you or you can be more hands on and even attend the shoot.

We work with the latest digital technology including Canon cameras EOS1Ds MkIII and EOS 1D MkIII. We have a database of over 500 people from all walks of life that we use as models in our photos. Plus, the children we work with have all the relevant local authority licences. We also source locations and props.
